Biak was Indonesia's gateway during World War II and Biak was to be one of the home bases of the Allied Forces when attacking Japanese troops. And also Japanese used Biak as defense base before finally with draw. Beside the memorial of World War II interest to see, there are some good places for diving, snorkeling and relax along the beach. The Padaido Islands have two area as we called Padaido Bawah (near to Biak town) and Padaido Atas (Upper Padaido) to the east. The islands are inhabited by South Pacific islanders speaking the Biak language and some Indonesians. There are about 20 odd small islands off the coast of the mainland of Biak in the beautiful Cenderawasih bay (bird of paradise's bay). These waters offer the best snorkeling place in the world. The diving off the eastern most islands of Padaido Atas – near to Saribra village. Further up of Padaido atas of Nusi island is beautiful fishes and coral heads decorate these waters with brilliant colors and sea turtles and dolphins fishes will play around, also you may walk around to see the kind of birds of Nusi island. To get Biak island there are daily flight from Jayapura or Jakarta and Bali.

Here are some program we offer you for Biak island and if you wish different program or shorter/longer, please contact us.
